

CLASH STIRS REPRESENTATIVES

Mann Is Subject of a Near Challenge to Physical Encounter

HOUSE IS IN UPROAR

WASHINGTON, Dec. 16.—A sharp clash between Representative Mann, of Illinois, republican leader of the house, and Representative Sisson, democrat, of Mississippi, gave the house an exciting moment today. What many members characterized as a challenge was hurled by Representative Sisson at the Illinois member, who, he said, was protected by the rules of the house from what Sisson would like to say or do to him.

"I do not ask for any protection by the rules of the house," Mann retorted sharply.

The house broke into an uproar, which was soon quieted, and consideration of the appropriation bill proceeded without further hostilities between the two members. The interchange which threatened for a moment to have unpleasant consequences, resulted from Sisson's efforts to secure adoption of an amendment permitting the hull of the Maine to be sold to private concerns.

"I am surprised that the gentleman has not included in his proposition the selling of the bones of the seaman, who died in the Maine," said Mann. "Both would bring large sums of money."

"Mr. Chairman, I have never declined to accept any insult when it was offered," Sisson said, when he regained the floor. "On the contrary, I have always been willing and ready to take care of myself, but the rules of the house will not permit me, perhaps, to do or say things necessary to be said."

Democrats applauded the Mississippi man, and Mann was on his feet at once, with his retort that he asked for no protection of the house.

The two members kept aloof the remainder of the day.

QUALITY OR QUANTITY

Which Do You Prefer—Newbro's Herpicide Represents Quality

Did you ever have a dealer offer you a large bottle of something and tell you it was a better remedy for the hair than Newbro's Herpicide and cheaper because in a larger bottle?

What? Certainly you knew you had many other people have, too.

What would you say to that same dealer were he to tell you a silver dollar was worth more than a five-dollar gold piece because it is larger?

Such an attempt being a reflection upon your good sense you would probably say some rather pointed things to him. You would be justified. Your self-respect would demand it.

Well, there are just as many good reasons for the difference in size between those bottles as there are for the difference in size between the silver dollar and the five dollar gold piece.

The truth is that the large bottle isn't half large enough.

There is more virtue in a half pint of Newbro's Herpicide than in a gallon of some of the so-called hair preparations.

There is a dollar's worth of results in the bottle of Herpicide, but do you know what is in the other?

No? Then why buy it? Your judgment, intelligence and the experience of your friends, if not your own, cry out against it.

You know when you go into that store that Herpicide is what you need and want.

You KNOW that Herpicide is the original scalp prophylactic.

You know that Herpicide kills the dandruff germ.

You KNOW that Herpicide stops falling hair.

You KNOW that Herpicide makes the hair light, fluffy and beautiful.

You know these things in the same way you know that the five dollar gold piece notwithstanding its size is more valuable than the silver dollar.

Then insist on having genuine Herpicide.

One dollar size bottles are sold and guaranteed by all druggists.

Applications obtained at the best barber shops and hair dressing parlors.

Send five cents in postage or silver for sample and booklet to The Herpicide Co., Dept. R., Detroit, Mich.

RENOMINATION IMPOSSIBLE

Pinchot Says Taft Cannot Be Named, La Follette Is Only Hope

WISCONSIN MAN IS NAMED

BOSTON, Dec. 16.—That the developments of recent months have made impossible the renomination of Taft, that the country is turning to La Follette as the next republican nominee, were among the declarations made by Gifford Pinchot, former chief of the United States forest service, before a gathering of progressive republicans here tonight.

"Unless the republican party shall meet the demands of the times by throwing itself squarely into progressive movements, its time of usefulness is past," he said. "Modern conditions demand modern treatment. The republican party needs to be cleansed of its open sores. The progressive movement, like every other great movement, must have a leader. I realize that this meeting is not called in the interest of any candidate, but I should be concealing my own convictions if I failed to express myself on this point. Since developments of recent months have made impossible the renomination of Taft, the country has been turning rapidly and rightly to that pioneer among progressives, a constructive statesman, full of courage and common sense, Robert M. La Follette, of Wisconsin. See to it that your delegates to the republican national convention are pledged to progressive principles, first, last and all the time, for this is a fight for principles."

THANKS VOTERS FOR SUPPORT

view I avail myself of this opportunity to thank the people of Arizona.

At the threshold of Statehood, the people have entrusted the destiny of the new state, to the progressive democracy and democracy will govern so wisely and so well, that when called to render an account of its stewardship it will be able proudly to point to a long list of deeds done, that are useful to the state, useful to the cause of truth, and to the cause of humanity.

For myself, in this hour of victory, I am very humble and very thankful. Thankful for the opportunity thus presented to me to be of some service to Arizona—and humble because I am duly impressed with the great responsibility that rests upon a senator of the United States.

Respectfully,
HENRY P. ASHURST.

Callaghan Expresses Gratitude

Bisbee, Ariz., Dec. 16, Gentlemen:

Permit me, through the medium of your paper, to publicly express my thanks and appreciation to the democrats of Bisbee and Cochise county for their part in the great victory which makes me the recipient of a high honor.

I regard the election of Tuesday last as a victory for principles rather than men, in which the progressive thinkers of all parties lent a hand.

To my mind it is an exemplification of the possibilities of honesty and purity in politics rather than of those founded upon the ability to deceive.

The progressive principles which carried the democracy of the new state of Arizona to victory will play an important part in the greater victory which will come to the democracy of the nation in 1912.

Long live the united democracy of "Dear Old Cochise!"

J. C. CALLAGHAN.

LEARNED TO EAT LEATHER

How Morgan's Pirates Managed to Swallow and Digest It to Avoid Starvation.

The infamous Captain Morgan and his piratical crew were sometimes in tight places at Panama, and on one occasion were reduced to eating their leather bags. "Some persons," says one of the company, Esquemelin (whose narrative is reproduced in "The Buccaneers in the West Indies"), "who never were out of their mothers' kitchens may ask how these pirates could eat, swallow and digest these pieces of leather, so hard and dry. Unto whom I only answer: That could they once experiment with hunger, or rather, famine is, they would certainly find the manner, by their own necessity, as the pirates did. For those first took the leather and sliced it in pieces. Then did they beat it between two stones and rub it, often dipping it in the water of the river, to render it by these means supple and tender. Lastly, they scraped off the hair, and roasted or broiled it upon the fire. And being thus cooked they cut it into small morsels and ate it, helping it down with frequent gulps of water, which by good fortune they had right at hand."

Not So Good as That.

This little boy was making his first struggle with natural history. Observing for the first time a very fluffy, silky sparrow, he remarked: "Some dogs have feathers, and other dogs just skin."

Gratefully Received.

A charitable man in Birkenhead once sent a bundle of cast-off clothing to a philanthropic society. He received from one of the recipients of garments given away by the society the following note:

"The community man give me, amongst other things, what he called a pair of inexpressibles. I found your name and where you lived in one of the pockets. My wife lashed so when I showed 'em to her that I shot she would have a fit. She wants to know if there lives and breathes a man who has legs no bigger than that. She said if there was, he ought be taken up for vagrancy for having no visible means of support. I couldn't get 'em on my eldest boy, so I used 'em for my gun-cases. If you have another pair to spare, my wife would like to get 'em to hang up by the side of the fireplace to keep the tongs in."

LOWELL UNITED IS READY FOR VICTORY

Players Confident They Will Make Stars Realize They Are Playing Soccer

One of the most exciting games of the season in the district soccer league is expected this afternoon when two of the strongest teams, the Lowell United and the Canyon Stars, will meet at Warren park.

Much interest among the soccer fans centers in the contest and a considerable number of wagers have been laid on the result. The game begins at 2:15 o'clock. Following is the line-up of the Lowell United:

Goal H. Williamson; right back J. Humphries; left back C. Hibbel (Captain); right half back J. White; center half R. Dwyer; left half J. Mitchell; right wing J. Atkinson; inside right H. A. White; center forward J. Johnson; inside left J. Gibson; left wing J. Cunningham. Reserve: H. Fitzgerald, H. Johnson, R. Kennedy. Referee T. Kelly.

Singular.

We noted yesterday the drowning of a boy named Johnny Ward in Mill river, and stated his body had not been found. That night a man who is familiar with the circumstances of the case had a dream in which he saw the boy, so he states, clinging to a post under a building. Yesterday a careful search for the body was made, and it was found under Daniels' mill, on Mill street, the arms of the lad firmly clasped about a piece of timber used for a support to the building. The finding of the body in the position as seen in the dream is singular.

Days of Rest for Horses.

A business concern in Baltimore which uses only the best stock for its draft horses, gives each horse a day of rest every week in addition to Sunday. The firm is convinced by experience that this practice increases the working capacity of the horses on days when they are in service and lessens veterinary expenses. — Exchange.

Endurance Tests.

"I kind of wish," remarked the government employee, "that they'd give me another kind of an endurance test." "You want physical exertion?" "Yes, I wish that for a change they'd let me see how many miles I can ride on horseback instead of how many hours I can sit at a desk."

By Degrees.

"We want our product known from the Atlantic to the Pacific." "Start a big advertising campaign." "But we haven't much money." "In that case I'd start at Panama shore it isn't so far from the Atlantic as the Pacific, and work gradually up."
